

DEMPSEY GETS $50,000 PURSE

Miske Weeps as He Leaves Ring; Pickpockets Make Big Haul

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Sept. 7.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, received $50,000 for battling Billy Miske, the St. Paul challenger, to defeat in the third round of their scheduled ten round bout here yesterday, according to a statement of the receipts given out today by Floyd Fitzsimmons, promoter of the contest.

The total attendance of the Labor Day battle was 11,335 and the total receipts were $124,904, including state and war tax. Dempsey was guaranteed $50,000 with a privilege of accepting fifty per cent of the receipts. Miske fought on a straight guarantee of $25,000.

After the knockout it was reported that one of Miske's ribs had been broken by the terrific punch he had received in the second round, but two physicians examined him and they agreed there was no fracture. There was a sore red spot under Miske's heart, the result of the punch, which he admitted, was the blow that really started him toward defeat. His ribs were bruised and his jaw was very sore but otherwise he showed no ill effects.

Dempsey did not bear a mark of the battle. After he had dined with Promoter Fitzsimmons and a party of friends last night, he spent the rest of the evening dancing at a pavilion in St. Joseph. He planned to leave for Chicago late this afternoon and will immediately go east in search of new opponents to conquer.

Promoter Fitzsimmons declared the contest was a success in every way. Despite the police and scores of visitors were victims of pickpockets. Secretary McCaskey, of the state boxing commission, was robbed of $150 at the ring side. Others reported that they had lost sums ranging from $25 to $250.

Miske was heartbroken over the defeat. He left the ring in tears as he hoped to stay the limit with Dempsey had he done in their two previous engagements. His father and wife were ring-side spectators.

FOREIGNERS WHO ACED US

World Measures Athletic Prowess in Terms of Stars Who Break the Tape

BY DEAN SNYDER.

Foreign athletes gave the Yanks a good run for their medals in the 1920 Olympic games.

Out of thirty track and field events Americans picked up but nine firsts, the majority of our 212 points coming from second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth places. The also-ran points all count on the totals, but they taste flat.

The United States finished with a margin of 107 points ahead of her nearest competitor, Finland, but after all it's the tape breakers who measure the world's athletic prowess.

MAPLE LEAF STAR.

True, Canada only amassed the small sum of 10 points, but the new world's record made by Earl Thomson in the 110-meter hurdles places the land of the Maple Leaf insignia on a very high pinnacle of honor so far as the public is concerned.

Thomson, the wonder athlete, who takes the hurdles with the stride of a sprinter, has joined the hall of fame. Notwithstanding the fact that he acquired him timber-topping form in the United States it was the Maple Leaf he wore when he thrilled the Antwerp crowds.

FRENCH ACE.

In the 5000-meter run it was Guillemot, the Frenchman, who led the world around the middle-distance grind, while America did not have a single man in the money. He has one of the longest strides of any runner in the game. He was the only Frenchman to take a first place for his country, like Thompson and Frigerio, did for theirs.

This Frigerio furnished the fancy heel and toe work of the Olympiad, winning firsts in both the 2000-meter and the 10,000-meter walks. The Italian is a veteran of the world war, having won distinction at Pave.

HOT THE FINNS.

The Finns produced Porkola, who beat our American ace of the shotput McDonald, whom we had regarded as an easy winner. The husky Finn parked the 16-pound steel ball out for a distance of 143.1 meters with his brother countryman, Nicklander, coming next, while the Americans, Livermore and McDonald, barely got inside with third and fourth places. This event proved one of the severest jolts the American dope got during the whole Olympiad.

The Finlanders, who are they? Well, they are the boys who took no less than six first places and the world has gone out that at the next international classic they intend to slip the Yanks the old razzberry.

If America is to have off another bit of world glory it's up to her to get pretty busy within the four years just ahead. Otherwise some of these foreign countries will be taking that word super off our reputation as producing superathletes.

They have already nipped up, Americans piled up 18 firsts at Stockholm in 1912, but the Antwerp records were less emphatic.

Golfers Mixing for Championship Honors

ROSLYN, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Thirty-six golfers representing Scotland, Canada and all sections of the United States continued play today for the national amateur championship. The first seven on the course completed in order to bring their number down to three, having tied at 165 in the preliminary round yesterday. When these three were selected, they and 25 others began the match play which will decide the championship in the final round Saturday.

The gallery devoted most of its attention today to the match between John Bull, the Canadian champion, and John Bull, because of his loss last June of the British amateur title to Cyril Tolley of England, who failed to qualify yesterday in the present tournament.

MOTOR FEATURE.

MARION, O., Sept. 6.—The 200-mile international championship motorcycle race run on the track near this city today was won by Ray Webster of Bridgeport, Conn., in 2 hours, 48 minutes and 37 seconds, or at a rate of 73.44 miles per hour, 7.2 faster than last year. Leonard Fucker was second and Jim Davis third.

MURPHY LOSES.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 6.—Nate Jackson of Oklahoma City tonight was given the decision by a board of three judges after ten slashing rounds with Jimmy Murphy of St. Louis. The men are bantamweights.

PATTERSON SHADES RED.

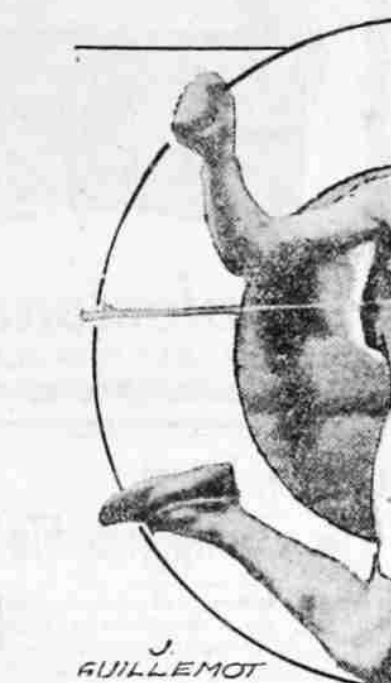

ROCKFORD, Ill., Sept. 6.—Leo Patterson of St. Louis earned a shade over Memphis Red of Chicago in a ten-round bout advertised as for the colored lightweight championship of the United States here tonight.

MAGEE RELEASED.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 6.—Outfielder Sherwood Magee, for years a National league star, was today given his unconditional release by the Columbus club of the American Association. Pitcher "Lefty" George was sold to the Minneapolis club for the waiver price.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 7.—Cleveland retained first place yesterday by winning two games from St. Louis, 7 to 2, and 6 to 5.

St. Louis drove Morton from the box in the first inning of the afternoon game but Clark held the Browns in check while Cleveland succeeded in tying the score. He gave way to Hagerty in the ninth, when St. Louis had runners on third and first with only one out.

Bagby passed Davis, filling the bases. Gerner hit to Evans, who threw Earl Smith out at the plate. Gedeon walked, scoring Severid, placing St. Louis in the lead.

In Cleveland's half after Jameson had been retired, Graney batted for Wambach and tripled. Speaker scored him with a single. Elmer Smith's third double and Gardner's single scored Speaker with the winning run.

Lunte, who has been playing short for Cleveland since Chapman was killed, speared a charity horse and will be out of the game for several days. Outfielder Evans took his place.

NEW RECORD.

SEAGRIFT, N. J., Sept. 6.—A new world's target record was claimed here today when Sergeant F. Leeger, of the United States Infantry shot a string of 59 consecutive bulls eyes in the 300 yard contest, shooting at 15 inch target. Second place was won by Corporal L. Petrovsky, of the United States marines, with 25 hits.

GEORGE CHIP LOSES.

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 6.—Jack Reeves of Tulsa tonight was awarded the referee's decision over George Chip of Chicago in a slugging twelve-round bout here. Chip was in distress in three rounds and his face was badly battered while Reeves emerged unmarked. The men are middleweights.

EARL THOMSON

The world has only known one Earl Thomson. His form over the hurdles in the 110-meter is approached by no other performer. The picture shows him winning at Antwerp for Canada. He flashed over the sticks for a new world's record, doing the event in 14.4 seconds.

DRIVERS SHOW SPEED IN CLIMB

Pikes Peak Event Is Held in Snowstorm; Good Time Made in Events

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 6.—Racing through a driving snowstorm, blinded by hail and a bitter wind, Otto Losche and Al M. Cline won first and second places in the free-for-all hill climb to the summit of Pike's Peak this afternoon.

William Rentrup won the small car race and Davis Lewis was second. Losche not only won the Pentrose trophy and the $500 prize, but also the $500 prize for the big car event and in addition he set the best time for the day's driving, which was 22:23.3, compared to Mulford's time in 1915 of 15 minutes and 24 seconds.

A heavy snow fall blinded the drivers near the final stretch, while the roads were slippery and wet. Goggles stuck to their faces and had been tossed aside. Curves were taken with reckless abandon, but there were no serious accidents. E. J. Beatty was unable to finish when a rim blew off and his machine was ditched.

Ralph Mulford, picked by many to win because of his record here four years ago, abandoned the race just about the 14 mile point, because of a blinding snow, although two other cars had preceded him into the storm.

It was a grueling race and the drivers were exhausted when they reached the summit. Spectators at the top also suffered and at Mile 14 there were times when the clouds and snow prevented any sight of the course. It began raining at 2 o'clock at Crystal Creek, and those without shelter were soaked.

Ralph Mulford made a strenuous effort to get back into the race after starting in a cloud and snow bank at Mile 14. Referee E. R. Sommers ruled that Mulford could not be given a new trial because all the other drivers piloted their cars through the snow storm.
